

Ernst & Young SA
Place de Pont-Rouge 1
Grand-Lancy
CH-1212 Geneva

Telefon +41 58 286 56 56
Fax +41 58 286 56 57
www.ey.com/ch

Reference Letter

Mr Augustin Debroeck, born on 5 December 1994, from France, was employed by Ernst & Young Ltd from 1 October 2018 until 31 July 2022 within the Service Line Strategy and Transactions (SaT) in Grand-Lancy / Geneva.

On 1 January 2022, Mr Debroeck transferred from the Transactions and Corporate Finance (TCF) - Transaction Diligence to the Transactions and Corporate Finance (TCF) - Lead Advisory department.

Due to his professional qualifications and very good performance, Mr Debroeck was promoted to Senior on 1 October 2020.

In the position of Senior Consultant, Mr Debroeck's main tasks included:

- Leading a mergers and acquisitions (M&A) deal execution, coordinating lawyers, investment banks, and consultants during due diligence and negotiations at a client site
- Acquiring solid corporate finance and valuation experience
- Preparing operating models, discounted cash flows (DCF), comparable analyses, and precedent transactions
- Preparing business plans, information memoranda, management presentations, and other marketing documentation
- Working on financial due diligence engagements on both buy-side and sell-side:
 - Working on the adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), net debt, and working capital section
 - Working on profit and loss (P&L) and balance sheet analyses
 - Acquiring solid experience using analytical software such as Alteryx and PowerBI
- Building the three-statement carve-out consolidated financials for 50 operating entities over three years historically when working at a client site in Paris (reporting directly to the CFO); leading (with the CFO and financial controllers) the carve-out sessions organized by the management consulting firm
- Maintaining good relationships with long-standing clients

Within the scope of additional duties, Mr Debroeck was responsible for:

- Representing EY during several lectures at the Faculty of Business and Economics (HEC) at the university of Lausanne for the Corporate Finance and M&A seminar
- Participating in the recruitment process for interns and consultants, including case study, brain teaser, and "fit" aspects

Mr Debroeck possessed comprehensive and deep specialist know-how, an exemplary knowledge of the industry and profoundly extensive experience in his entire area of responsibility. He made excellent use of his expertise even when handling extremely demanding tasks and exceeded our expectations. Mr Debroeck always delivered outstanding results of excellent quality. He was extremely efficient, applied the available resources optimally and accordingly achieved the best possible results, while consistently adhering to deadlines.

Thanks to his pronounced analytical skills and his exceptionally cross-linked way of thinking, Mr Debroeck assimilated new situations, demanding processes and complex interrelationships remarkably quickly as well as thoroughly, and drew from them forward-looking and realizable conclusions. Possessing a distinct organizational talent, he worked systematically, maintaining an overview of his tasks, however demanding the situation, and planned his work proactively within the time constraints while setting the right priorities. By virtue of his extraordinary resilience, Mr Debroeck unflinchingly completed his tasks, notwithstanding demanding working conditions and a very high workload. He remained undaunted by obstacles or setbacks, welcoming them as challenges. We perceived Mr Debroeck as an exceedingly conscientious employee who demonstrated an exceptional level of dedication. He welcomed additional responsibility, acted extremely independently, showed great initiative and was remarkably committed. Taking the individual concerns of our customers seriously and making them a top priority at all times, he was professional in meeting their needs while attaining the company's objectives. He excelled in building and maintaining long-term client relationships. Mr Debroeck proactively reviewed processes and procedures, initiated creative and effective ideas for improvements, and was instrumental in their implementation. Extremely flexible, he was open to innovation, embraced change and exploited its advantages for the benefit of the company, dispelling resistance to new processes and playing a pivotal role in putting them into practice.

Able to communicate clearly, concisely and appropriately in any situation, Mr Debroeck was expert at making his case convincingly, presenting topics in a structured and systematic way to deliver pertinent arguments, and readily taking on board the views of his audience. A cooperative and helpful individual, Mr Debroeck was a dynamic team player who respected other opinions and who significantly fostered collaboration. He anticipated potential conflicts in good time and resolved them in an impartial and consistent fashion. An engaging and confident personality with impeccable manners, Mr Debroeck commanded universal respect and asserted himself naturally while remaining approachable and open-minded. He was widely perceived as a cooperative, reliable and helpful individual who was highly valued by customers, colleagues and superiors alike.

This reference letter has been drawn up as Augustin Debroeck is leaving us of his own accord, effective 31 July 2022. We greatly regret his departure, thank him for his commitment and wish him all the best and every success for his professional and personal future.

Ernst & Young Ltd

Laura Drees
Human Resources

Christian Stäger
Human Resources

Geneva, 31 July 2022